Forever Failure (Recorded Live In Germany 1995)

Paradise Lost

You must feel frustration
Cause your mind feels such temptation
And your ways appear a total lack of faithYou may feel elation
At your body's re-creation
And that joy you need, restricted by one thoughtAre you forever loss of purpose in a passive life
Are you forever pale, regarded as a waste of timeHigh times are courageous
But in truth they suit no purpose
Induced, reduced, unable and afraid
