Please Come In

Black Stone Cherry

I have looked out my window
And you know she's no longer there
There's an angel standing in her place, well she won't care
Couldn't be that easy for her to say goodbye
Please come in, don't pretend
Like the girl I had before
Please come in, don't pretend
I don't wanna hurt anymore
It must be the time for me to leave it behind
'Cause there's a new day out there
Where the sun will always shine
Please come in, don't pretend
Like the girl I had before
Please come in, don't pretend
I don't wanna hurt anymore
If you look out your window
And there's an angel there
I hope she plays a guitar
With flowers, flowers in her hair
Please come in but don't pretend
Won't you please come in?
Listen baby
Please come in, don't pretend
Like the girl I had before
Please come in, don't pretend
I don't wanna hurt anymore
Please come in, don't you pretend
