

Magic of Love

Janis Joplin

Alright, you went away
Had your chance to say, "I love you an' I need you baby"
Yeah, but even if, honey, I told your daddy now
You would not believe me anyway, no, no, no Maybe you will now, I've changed a lot somehow
Let me prove what I say Come back an' believe my love
Please, now come back, baby, believe my love, my love
Won't you come back, an' believe the magic of love? Oh, now the light without the darkness
Oh, now sky without the sun, yeah
When do the stars an' the moon reach out?
When they see me alone without my loved one, yeah Oh, now baby, don't you hear me?
Won't you just disturb me? I gotta, gotta, gotta, gotta tell you
Oh baby, baby, baby, baby, honey, I just gotta tell you now
Honey, I wanna tell you that I want you to dig it Now if you believe in magic Don't be afraid, afraid to use it, baby
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, come on home
Dressed in mystic silk or wearing rich rags an' waste Darling, please come on back to me
I know we can be part of a magic race Come back an' believe my love
Baby come back, baby believe my love
Come on', come back an' believe the magic of love Hey, now come back, baby believe my love
I know, you come back, please just believe in my love
Well, come back an' believe the magic of love
