Endless Blue

Elsa Kopf

Everyone seems so far away
Glittering jewels that you never had
You'll never own anythingSeems so far behind
See yourself in the places you've been
Some other timeIn endless blue
Reflections look so good
You're never certain of anything
Unless you go inEndless blue
Seems so far away
A glittering jewel that you never had
Nor will you againAt high tide, high tideEveryone seems so far away
Glittering jewels that you never had
You'll never own
Everything seems so far behind
See yourself in the places you've been
Some other timeAt high tide, high
As far as you can say
At high tide, high tideEndless, endless, endless
It's endless
