

Finally Home

Kerrie Roberts

Here I am, where I stood
I never will ever be again
I gave too much to what I shouldn't have
It took from me what little I had left
It hurt me so fast
Is there a place where I can rest
Where I can finally stay and be safe

( Chorus )

Where I know that I belong
In hands that heal me
And I know I'm finally home
In arms that won't let go
It's the love only
It's the love that only you can bring
And I'll never be alone
Cause this love doesn't run
No this love doesn't run

What I lost and what is gone
Where I've been
It doesn't matter now
Cause I let go of holding on
To anything that's not Your love

Cause You're the only one I live with for
And I know that I'll never have to be afraid of losing what I gave Cause You keep me safe

Where I know I belong
In the hands that heal me
And I know I'm finally home
In arms that won't let go
It's the love that only
It's the love that only you can bring
And I'll never be alone
Cause this love doesn't run

No this love doesn't run

I never knew the meaning of forever
I never heard the voice inside the storm

You hold my heart
You hold the world together
Only You can hold me now

( Chorus )
