

Cave of Steenfall

Stormwitch

Once upon a time
Thunder and lightning shook the sky
The sea roared up
The fisher's boat was thrown aboutHe found a cave
That gave him shelter through this night
The sea, it calmed
On his way he heard a shoutThe thundering voice led him
Back into the cave
There he saw a light
From an opening
A gleaming lake with gold
From the ship named "Camilan"
"It could be yours,
why don't you grab this thing"A thundering voice out of the sea
Steenfall was his destinyHis greed for treasures
Made him wild and insane
He screamed out loud
And jumped into the lakeA hand with sharp, black claws
Reached for his neck
Condemned forever
It was for Satan's sakeA thundering voice....

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>