

Tough Guy

Joe

So many moving parts
When a man's gotta finish what he starts
(But he won't back down)
Don't send a text
Cause a cell phone can't possess a beating heart
(Look in her eyes)
We're galaxies apart, And that's no way to live
We're two stubborn hearts, And something's gotta give(Ohhh why...whyyyyy...why you gotta be such a tough guy)
Uhhnnn, You made her cry
(Inside, inside...she's probably feeling like she just died)
(Don't cry)Why can't we understand
How our words can shape the deepest pain
(Take a look in her eyes)
Thundering hearts, liberty is falling like pouring rain
We're galaxies apart, it's no way to live (no way to live)
Two Stubborn hearts, something's gotta give(Ohhh why...whyyyyy...why you gotta be such a tough guy)
Tough guy, tell her you're sorry
(Inside...inside, she's probably feeling like she just died)
Baby don't cry(Now love's looking over her shoulder) Yeah
(Somewhere, thinking it's over) Over
(Crying, wishing you would just hold her)
And I don't want (don't want), her to think that it's over(She'll only take but so much) Uhhnnnn
(Don't let) Don't let (her walk away) Noooo
(From your touch)
(She'll only take so much...take so much)(Ohhh why...whyyyyy...why you gotta be such a tough guy)
Just tell her your'e sorry right now,
(Inside) Inside (She's probably feeling like she just died)
(Don't cry)
