

Fine Lines White Lies

Uh Huh Her

Heartbreaks are nothing new
But you made me have faith in you, well
I don't believe you anymore
But you think that you want to show me the way
I'll find it on my own
Thanks, there's nothing to say
I don't believe you any more
Well you can't rely on innocence
Cant' rely, oh, on innocence
Well heartbreaks are nothing new
But you made me have faith in you
Well I don't believe you anymoreHeartbreaks are nothing new
But you made me have faith in you
Well I don't believe you anymoreThieves in the night
All I ever really want
All I ever wanted was your heart
But you tell me pretty lies
Well all I ever really want is
All I really wanted was your heartAll our systems
All our dreams, they can collide
Yet I run away
Fine lines, white lies
Heartbreaks are nothing new
But you made me have faith in you
Well I don't believe you anymoreHeartbreaks are nothing new
But you made me have faith in you
Well I don't believe you anymore
