

(My My) Baby's Gonna Cry

Eurythmics

Do you feel sorry, lover? Do you feel blue?
What reason did you have to be untrue?
Now you could be so good but you have to be so bad
When you could make me happy lover, you make me sad
Now there's a cool breeze blowin', blowin' out the flame
That used to burn inside me at the mention of your name
Now there's a cool breeze blowin', blowin' down the track
That's where I'm goin' and I'm never comin' back
My, my baby's gonna cry
My, my baby's gonna cry
Tonight, oh yeah, tonight, oh yeah
There's nothing comes from nothing, that's what they always say
Didn't mama tell you, that's the price you have to pay?
That you can't have your piece of cake and eat the sweet thing too
But that kind of understanding isn't good enough for you
My, my baby's gonna cry
My, my baby's gonna cry
My, my baby's gonna cry
Tonight, oh yeah, tonight, oh yeah
Tonight, oh yeah, tonight, oh yeah
My, my baby's gonna cry
My, my baby's gonna cry
My, my baby's gonna cry
My, my baby's gonna cry
My, my baby's gonna cry
Tonight, oh yeah, tonight, oh yeah
Tonight, oh yeah, tonight, oh yeah
I see those tears come falling in
I see those tears come falling in
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
See my baby is crying, oh yeah
Will you cry tonight? Oh
