Let's Pretend

Cinerama

And it might seem unorthodox
But I am trying to remove all traces of your personality
So I'm sending you a box
Full of stuff you left when you decided that you'd had enough of meSo here are your things starting with a pair of earrings
And I just bet this is your corrs cassetteIt might sound a little lame
But we had something so good that I don't want to remember any more
Because whatever it became
It started out as something that I've never quite experienced beforeI put this in because it looked feminine
I'm not quite sure if it was mine or yoursCan we pretend we never met?
Pretend there's nothing to forget
Can we pretend we weren't in love?
Let's pretend we've no-body to be reminded ofAnd now that I've begun I'm finding things everywhere
When I think that I am done, I'll find some underwearCan we pretend we never met?
Pretend there's nothing to forget
Can we pretend we weren't in love?
Let's pretend we've no-body to be reminded of
