

Memories That Bless And Burn

Dry Branch Fire Squad

And now to God I will return â€”I know my time is drawing near â€”Let memories that bless and burn Heal your hearts with tearsâ€”Fear not for me my cherished friends â€”I do not walk this road alone â€”I long to leave this earthly life â€”And take my journey homeâ€”â€”My loved one wait upon the shore Their dear faces I can see â€”They beckon me to join them there â€”"Come Home" they call to meâ€”â€”I see the light around the throne â€”I hear the angels sweetly sing â€”And as I break these mortal chains â€”I feel my soul take wing â€”â€”And now to God I will return â€”I know my time is drawing near Let memories that bless and burn â€”Heal your hearts with tearsâ€”
Let memories that bless and burn
Heal your heart with tears
