

Enchanted

Jerry Vale

Enchanted I'm caught by surprise
Watching the light in your eyes
You smile and heaven must be
As close as your lips are to me
Then slowly my fingertips find
The thrill of your fingers in mine
The touch of your arms feel so new
And I say how much I love you
How long I've waited for this
To find your soul in a kiss
Your voice thrilling me by a word
That said and yet somehow not heard
At last you surrender to me
And together we share ecstasy
You're mine, you're mine now it's true
And you are enchanted too
At last you surrender to me
And together we share ecstasy
You're mine you're mine now it's true
And you are enchanted too.....
