Autumn Storm

Joe Modifica

I will love you in the morning, Baby
I will be there by your side
There's no reason to cry, now baby
There's no reason to lie, oh anymoreThis autumn storm, will be forewarned,
This autumn stormI know that you've been lonely, now Baby
I know for you it's been hard
Time goes by so slowly Baby
When I'm away with a lonely heart - oh lonely heartThis autumn storm; be forewarned,
This autumn stormSee the sky turning red, now Baby
See the waves crash up ahead
Feel the wind around you Baby
Feel the rain upon your head, on your headWell I don't care what you say, now Baby
And I don't care what you've done
Today's for living not memories - Baby
Tomorrow's are hopes to come, ah hopes to comeThis autumn storm; be forewarned
This autumn stormWell take my hand and hold me, Baby
A love like ours will survive; the tides of love are endless
The waves of love reach the sky, reach the skyThis autumn storm; be forewarned
This autumn storm
