

Likely To Use Something

The Belle Brigade

He's been licking wounds
Since he was young
But never know where the knife is coming from Things just turning blue
And he don't know why
He's been that way his whole life
But he keeps on waiting
As if life was waiting for him
He's likely to use something
He might just abuse something
And he might lose his mind
And he might lose his will to try
Oh but he'll be feeling alright Yeah Yeah
Yeah Yeah She's been dreaming of love
Since she was nine
But never thought who she wants for her life
Now she's twenty five
Think she's getting old
Maybe think she should just stop trying
And just stand still waiting
As if someone is waiting for
She's likely to use something
She might just abuse something
She might lose her mind
She might lose her will to try
Oh It should be feeling alright And the fun thing about the life
I might just forget about mine
And I'm laying and waiting
As if something is waiting for me I'm likely to use something
I might just abuse something
I'm likely to use something
I might just abuse something
And I might lose my mind
And I might lose my will
And I might waste my time
And I might feel alright
Alright
Oh but I'll be feeling alright
I'm likely to use something

I might just abuse something
And I might lose my mind
And I might lose my will to try Oo - oooh Yeeaah
Oo - oooh Yeeaah
Oo - oooh Yeeaah
Oo - oooh Yeeaah
