

Walking Away With You

Amy Grant

He calls me to the darkness
And He tries to put some hardness
In my heart, pullin' us apart
And He tells me that He needs me
But lies are all he feeds
Into my life, day and night When I'm losin' my sense of direction
And I'm needin' some strength and protection
Walkin' away with You
I go walkin' away with You, well when I
When I think I can't stand any longer
And I'm cryin' for someone that's stronger
Walkin' away with You
I go walkin' away with You There's nothing he can do
His threat to me is through
And I go walkin' away with You Lonely overtakes me
Everyone forsakes me
Friends are gone pain is on
Walls around my feelings
Emptiness concealin'
All my views, all of You When I'm needin' someone to console me
Nearly dyin' for someone to hold me
Walkin' away with You
I go walkin' away with You, and when I'm
When I'm faced with a tricky temptation
I abandon the whole situation
Walkin' away with You
I go walkin' away with You Oh, what a fail safe plan
Just staying hand in hand
I'll keep on walkin' away with you I don't notice if no one's around me
When I see that Your lovin' has found me
Taken my surprise
Like sunlight in a clouded sky
When I'm dancin' his light is a favor
Au revoir to the stormy weather
Walkin' from the night to a neverending light When I'm losin' my sense of direction
And I'm needin' some strength and protection
Walkin' away with You
I go walkin' away with You, and when I
When I think I can't stand any longer

And I'm cryin' for someone that's stronger
Walkin' away with You
I go walkin' away with You When I'm needin' someone to console me
Nearly dying for someone to hold me
Walkin' away with You
I go walkin' away with You, and when I'm
When I'm faced with a tricky temptation
I abandon the whole situation
Walkin' away with You
I go walkin' away with You Well when I'm losin' my sense of direction
And I'm needin' some strength and protection
Walkin' away with You
I go walkin' away with You, well when I
When I think I can't stand any longer
And I'm cryin' for someone that's stronger
Walkin' away with You
I go walkin' away with You
