

Trademark

Relient K

I think it might just be alright
To leave what matters out of sight
Old habits die hard holding on Inevitable means it's never gone Told myself what I need to hear
I think the point was very clear
I showed me what we'd missed
Since we slipped into inconsistency It seems as if my ties with you get severed
I can't seem to hold a thing together
I just fall apart, 'cause that's my trademark It's my, my trademark move
To turn my back on you
It's my, my trademark move
To realize I should improve And sometime soon after that You'll see me come crawlin' back I'll kill the thing that turns me away
Amputate the arm that will disobey
Withdraw from everything that's hurting me
Until you finish your work in me Told myself what I need to hear
I think the point was very clear
I showed me what we'd missed
Since we slipped into inconsistency It seems as if my ties with you get severed
I can't seem to hold it on together
I just fall apart, 'cause that's my trademark It's my, my trademark move
To turn my back on you
It's my, my trademark move
To realize I should improve And sometime soon after that You'll see me come crawlin' back It's my, my trademark move
To turn my back on you
It's my, my trademark move
To realize I should improve It's my, my trademark move
To turn my back on you
It's my, my trademark move
To realize I should improve And sometime soon after that You'll see me come crawlin' back

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>