

Emotional

Anna Ayers

Here comes the rain
It's pouring down
The days go by
Still without You

So far away
But now I know
When it's really real
It's hard to let it go

(Pre-chorus)
Something's got me thinking
About the way that I am thinking things through Thinking things through

Maybe I am too emotional
Making me cry is easy
And it's not your fault
You never did anything wrong
Maybe I am too emotional

Here comes the storm
It's blowing in
When autumn comes
I've gotta get back to good

So all the ways
That I'm losing in
And I know that you know that I miss you
I've missed you all along

Maybe I am too emotional
Making me cry is easy
And it's not your fault
You never did anything wrong
Maybe I am too emotional

Summer's got me thinking about the way that I've been thinking about the way that I've been thinking things through, thinking things through

Woah, Maybe I am too emotional

Making me cry is easy

And it's not your fault

You never did anything wrong

Maybe I am too emotional

Something's got me thinking...
