

What's the Point

Josh Fix

Well if I seem crazy tonight, babe,
It's just that I'm scared.
'Cause it kills me to know that eventually I'm gonna
Lose the best thing I had.Ooh but I know I'll find a way,
To screw things up with you baby.AnywayThere was this boy, and he fell in love with this girl.
She fell in love with him back, I guess everything's right with the world.
Ooh, but they don't know how it is.
Life takes back what it gives,And snuffs it out again.
If everyone's heard this before, what's the point?There was this song that we used to sing, I don't Remember how it goes.
But there was a pain in the music I'm sure
Everybody know.Oh well I don't fade away.
I've still things to say.So if I seem crazy tonight, babe,
It's just that I'm scared.
'Cause it kills me to know that eventually I'm gonna
Lose the best thing I had.Ooh but I know I'll find a way,
To screw things up with you baby.
And snuff me out again.
But if everyone's heard this before, what's the point?
