Slow Motion Countdown

Graveyard

How long, how long,
Lower than the sea
To let you go,
Too far to even try to reach.

And donâ€™t you even try to let it go?
While everything around me is breaking down so slow.
Where will you go when we all fade away?
Where is your civil time about the sun makes to us.

So when you walk outside to see the reasons for
Do not forget the light that doesnâ€™t make you grow.
But youâ€™re staying home at just the saddest news
There is no side to chose.
And the numbers grow and push you down so low,
Youâ€™ll never let it lose, donâ€™t ever let it lose.

Oh, was it a low way down to leave us behind?
So stay where you are,
Come on, write them all,
But if the skies will fall Iâ€™ll be asking for you
No one wants to see your cold the way the others do
If these are your prayers I wonâ€™t follow you through.

When the flame turns blue
Not even you will lead us through.

Thatâ€™s when you will never go
If you see me, I move slow
My head rolls off,
I spread the bands where I go.

Youâ€™ll see the ones that lost get miles into
Like all your loved ones play the best part of your all.
I can help you, now, when you ask me how
I see the trouble in your way.
If you ran out time, you just stay in line and
Donâ€™t ever let it lose, donâ€™t ever let it lose.

Oh, was it a long way down they leave us behind

So stay where you are, come around of them all,
Now itâ€™s not too far, theyâ€™ve been asking for you.
No one wants to see your cold the way the others do
If these are your prayers I wonâ€™t follow through.

When the flame turns blue
Not even you will lead us through.

Donâ€™t let it lose, donâ€™t ever let it lose.
Oh, was it a long way down, a long way down?
Not even you will lead us through.
When the flame turns blue.
