Ellen Molnia

Just a passing glance of her face is all
I had, still I trod upon the same path
And I love this dream of mine, we're together all alone
So far way from this world of men
I see no hope when we trust our lives to machines
Want to go, escape this wilderness with...

Runaway darling, runaway darling
Runaway with you, runaway darling
Runaway runaway till I see...

Turn my eye so close to look at you is all I had, now I trod down the same road
Even when chemistry fail, love shall prevail I heart
I thoughts of you still linger
Set I in a trance of these mellow blues meditation
Burning one, red caught your eye, your sense just run
Met you in babylon school room
Still goodness of your love bloom
Days numbered are these words I shall say
That day you took the numbers away
See no hope, we reside amongst crazy things
Want to go, escape this jungle concrete with...

Runaway darling, runaway darling
Runaway with you, runaway darling
Runaway runaway till I see...
