I Live for You

Gary Taylor

I found you deep in the darkness, of another life.
In spite of all the time between us, I felt for you inside.
I grew to know much about you,
Playing it against the odds.
Hardly does a day go by when
You arenâ€™t in my thoughts.

And now that time has called me,
To another place.
Putting many miles between us,
On any given day.

It doesnâ€™t have to mean Iâ€™m
Leaving you all alone.
Love for you will always be as Close as the nearest phone.

When loneliness tries to make you weak
Remember, I live for you, I live for you.
When insecurity makes it hard to believe
Know that thereâ€™s no one else babe
I live for you.

Sometimes just simple affection
Is all that I can offer you.
I really want to be that someone
Who makes your dreams come true.

Just try, with some understanding
To put yourself in my shoes.
Know that you are everything I am,
I live for you

When loneliness tries to make you weak
Please rememberâ€¦I live for you.
When insecurity makes it hard to believe
Know that thereâ€™s no one else
I live for you.

There will never be another

to make me feel the way you do.
My life is built around loving you and only you
I live for you.
