

Wordless

Una

No need to say the words that once set free from the mouth clumsy and true, wispy and blue endlessly linger in air

Kicking and scratching these words would rather be free but once they're free, they linger in air endlessly

Farewell from the tongue once last breath and they're gone Words that seem wrong
they don't seem to belong

Anywhere, somewhere, everywhere, everywhere
Anywhere, somewhere, everywhere, everywhere
Anywhere, somewhere, everywhere, everywhere
Anywhere, anywhere...

Words that seem wrong
they don't seem to belong

Anywhere, somewhere, everywhere, everywhere

Everywhere, everywhere
Everywhere, everywhere
they don't seem to belong
somewhere
