

Cloudy

Krayzie Bone

Cloudy...Overcast in my head keep my vision cloudy
Like gloomy weather, got me down, feelin' really drowsy
Even tho the sun is shining all around me
I seem to have a dark cloud, steady raining down on me
I try to shake it, can't escape it, pray for better days
Tryna find a better mind, set with never rage
I can't focus, there is too many obstacles
They say i'm hopeless, I used to pray to god before
But That's before i started hastily, chasing the devil
Living on the edge, fast paced, and racing the treble
Nobody here to help me through the bad storms
So my so called friends, i lost the love i've had for em'
So its heavy rain, with a chance of a hurricane My forever pain runs deeply in my veins
I bleed struggle so i never see the rain
But forgive me if i make the wrong decisions everything's so cloudy
I guess i'll never see the sunshine, I never get to see the early mornin' sunrise, At night i look up at the sky
know that one time, I can see the stars sometimes but the sky so cloudy
Its rainin', its pourin', its rainin', its stormin', its rainin', its pourin', its stormin' its so cloudyMy god its hard to focus when your vision blurry
But my decisions make a scurry, ill leave in a hurry
Im plenty worried i can lose my soul, if i dont start acting like im supposed to know (better!)
Id say a prayer but i know we proolly fed up(crazy!)
I need a blessing im just giving a heads up
Now im weatherin' a bad storm, stand strong, its the last one
And i ain't seen the sunshine, even when being on top of a world it wasn't right, And ive never been comfortable with [?]bright lights, something i'd like, believe me they livin' quite trife
Sometimes i feel like i might not live past the storm Seem like its been forever and forever just keeps passing on I can't escape this bum weather, so its just me and my umbrella ella, ellaWhy does it rain on me? Why must it rain on me? Why does it rain?
I guess i'll never see the sunshine, I never get to see the early mornin' sunrise, At night i look up at the sky
know that one time, I can see the stars sometimes but the sky so cloudy
Its rainin', its pourin', its rainin', its stormin', its rainin', its pourin', its stormin' its so cloudyI can't see clearly,
My mind is stolen
I dont want to go outside, cuz it won't stop pourin'
Walkin in the rain, walkin in the rain, walkin in the rain, rain
