

Perfect Boys

Vio

You look into the mirror and you see yourself.
Your hair will be a mess unless it gets some help. Just see your tan, you've never looked so good.
With muscles now, since you've been working out. Working with authorities is what you're for and you know people that are working at the door. That's the glamorous life and just the price for throwing a dice like the perfect boys. And everyone knows they're not one to play with.
Self white smiles and laughter to go with. In a tight shirt, a fancy car with expensive clothes.
Yeah they are the perfect boys. While you raise your hands through open lands.
Freedom is yours
and when it rains it pours. Not struck by any shackles, you've got it all figured out.
You see people going in circles, ones that you've broken out. Having the times of their lives I'm sure.
Use phrases all the time cause they are insecure. All your time goes to looking good and feel bad.
With women now, since you've been treating them bad. You've gotta inject yourself to be as strong as he.
The girls will love it, man just wait and see and it's all right cause everybody knows
that they are, they are, they are the perfect boys. Dancing in the snow with a coked up nose.
Beating people

that are stepping on your toesbut it's all right
that they are, they are,
they are the perfect boys.While you raise your hands through open lands.
Freedom is yours
and when it rains it pours.Not struck by any shackles, you've got it all figured out.
You see people going in circles,
ones that you've broken out.
