

Journey Through Pressure

Katatonia

Pushing the will
Being Alive
Well I have been
I came far
The process of trying to act unharmed
It will fade out
Thoughts will unwind
No longer mine
They are for you when you come
So long I'm cutting here
And water's blood when you come
The sky moves faster
At this time of year
