

Wild Card

Buddy Miller

I was just a wild card free as you please
Blowing down the road as cool as a breeze
Blowing down the highway free as the law allowsI was just a rolling stone a rambling man
But when it came to love I had to throw in my hand
'Cause there ain't no wild card ever could beat the houseYou can't beat the house man you better think twice
Love's gonna win take my advice
You don't know the score its a losing game
There ain't a wild card love can't tameYou can be a high rollin man about town
But the bets are all off when love comes around
'Cause there ain't no wild card ever could beat the houseYou're gonna lose your heart friend you better beware
It's a loaded dice love doesn't play fair
The deck is stacked against you there ain't no doubtLove will make a ramblin man wanna stay home
Make a family man out of a rolling stone
And there ain't no wild card ever could beat the houseYou ain't got a chance but don't worry now
You're gonna be happy you lost anyhow
'Cause there ain't no wild card ever could beat the house

Songwriters
BUDDY MILLER, JULIE ANNE MILLERPublished by Lyrics Â© BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>