Snow White

The Supervillains

1, 2 fuck youher hearts subarctic, pretty fucking cold she's got no personality she lacks a soul with a big steely knife sticking in your back courtesy of snow white's backstabbing attack another boyfriend every week another dis every day when I see her on the street I go the other way with a bible in her hand and a condom in her wallet snow white lies or whatever you call itplease take heed and choose another path don't be another victim of snow white's wrathyou're going to hell if you call her a bitch this snow white she's a wicked witch please understand what I'm trying to say the mirror, the mirror on the wall has been lying to me I don't care what you say it ain't true the same mirror on the wall's been lying to you if you think she's an angel and she's a godsend then that mirror on the wall is your best friendit's gonna work for her every single day when I see her on the street I go the other way never mind the alias, she's snow white stupid little silly bitch, she ain't right I don't care what you say it ain't true the mirror mirror on the wall's been lying to you obsessed with herself, her own best friend the mirror on the wall is her best friendso go away, go away, go away snow white
