

She Bleeds Red

Velvet Acid Christ

all over there, you sit here, wishing and dreaming you were not here, now is the time to wash away the fear. she she bleeds red, she she bleeds red, she cries. whisper in pain, in love again, it's scary, it's like a dying flower, so what's the use, in trusting you again, again, again, wired eyes see right through me, she bleeds red, she cries. it's like a dream, but only backwards, inside where you hide all your pain. into me, i lied to you, always again, what is the difference, when your life is nothing but some slavery... she she bleeds red, she she bleeds red, red, red, red, red, red, red, red, red, red, she bleeds red!
