

Wanna Know Love

Kristy Lee

If I'm having a bad day and I feel the need to cry
I want for you to be there and wipe the tears from my eyes

I wanna know love
I'm willing to try love

I feel the sun shining thru the pouring rain
I wanna feel your sweet kiss on the side of my face

I wanna know love
I'm willing to try love

I wanna hear the birds singing in my ears for a while
I wanna feel my heart beat fast when i see u smile

I wanna know love
I'm willing to try love

Can u make love something I can feel
Something so beautiful that it wouldn't seem real

I wanna know love
I'm willing to try love, yeah

I wanna know love
I'm willing to try love, yeah
