

Beautiful Life 2 (Mine)

Trip Lee

Say uh
Say yeah
Say boss
There you go Oh I love you (yeah)
Like no other (yeah)
When I see you smile you shine just like the summer (yeah, oh) You know the feeling when them words fail
Hard to verbalize what I wanna tell
To my mini me, my little man
You talking baby talk I don't know what you be saying
But it's music to my years though
Boom bap to your daddy when i'm near though
Mommy put you in them polos and skinnies
Curly fro wild you be flier than a Lear though
You got that mixed kid swag on
Lookin like your momma and your dad on 'em
Straight out the womb you was real fresh
I cried so hard 'till there ain't tears left
Since then you keep a smile on my face
Wrestlin' and dancin', wildin the place up
Look I know you got my name but I want you wearing his living for his fame Oh I love you (yeah)
Like no other (yeah)
When I see you smile you shine just like the summer (yeah, oh)
My vision (yeah)
Can't be clearer no no no
'Cause you're beautiful it's no wonder I love you I can't believe you're mine
I can't believe you're mine
You're always on my mind
I can't believe you're all mine I can't believe you're mine
I can't believe you're mine
You're always on my mind
I can't believe you're all mine Can't believe
Can't believe you're all mine
Can't believe
Can't believe you're all mine
Aye
Second verse to my baby girl, huh
You and your mommy are my favorite girls
To my dear Sailor Simone
It took forever now we bringin you home you all mine
You the cutest all time

Even though you keep us up all night cryin
And I think you're brother's in love
Lil' rough but he's giving you hugs
Plus you know I
Can't wait to watch y'all grow (Y'all grow)
Can't wait to watch that show (What show?)
God's grace in your life and you know
No matter how it goes let your daddy stay close
And I'll be sure to tell you everyday
You made in His image baby you ain't gotta wait
To hear no affirmation from them dudes in the streets
You already know you're beautiful to me Oh I love you (yeah)
Like no other (yeah)
When I see you smile you shine just like the summer (yeah, oh)
My vision (yeah)
Can't be clearer no no no
'Cause you're beautiful it's no wonder I love you I can't believe you're mine
I can't believe you're mine
You're always on my mind
I can't believe you're all mine I can't believe you're mine
I can't believe you're mine
You're always on my mind
I can't believe you're all mine Can't believe
Can't believe you're all mine Â
Can't believe
Can't believe you're all mine Â What a great gift from a great God
What a great gift from a great God
You belong to Him but He gave you to me
You belong to Him but He gave you to me What a great gift from a great God
What a great gift from a great God
You belong to Him but He gave you to me
Thanks man, it might make the album
