Friend of Mine

Treble Charger

Funny, tortured mind
It happens all the time
It's not too encouraging
You never prayed for anythingWhat makes you so great Something I would indicate
The lamest stand
The strongest can't help the similaritiesDoesn't seem at all severe
Is it fair now? Does it matter?
Backwards through another year
I'll come down soon
Don't tell me what to doI'll make no claim on your design
I will not call you a friend of mine
I cannot follow your disguise
I will not, I will notI'm not sure what you say
Makes any difference anyway
Tell me what you mean
With any hope of coming cleanIt's brought to you too late now
But I appreciate
The never ending saying that
We've had days like this beforeI'll make no claim on your design
I will not call you a friend of mine
I cannot follow your disguise
I will not, I will notI will not call you a friend of mine
I will not, I will not
