The Seventh Seal

Van Halen

Oh yeahWalk me down to the wishin' well

Help me find that miracle

Splash that holy water on me

Drown my faith in Trinity, yeah

Oh, LordLittle by little gonna get it I swear

One more piece of the puzzle, I'm there, yeah

Gotta get lucky, gotta get that done

s never hurt no oneCome on take me down, do

Little bit of luck never hurt no oneCome on take me down, down, down, down

I'm in a cold sweat

Lord, don't let me drown, drown, drown, drown In Mother Earth's soul yetOh yeah, yeah Under darken skies

We'll see the light

YeahBroken now, I can't help but feel

Someone cracked the seventh seal

Nothin' sacred, nothin' left unturned

When nothin's simple, then nothin's learnedSo take me down to the virgin spring

Wash away my suffering, oh

Splash that holy water on me

Wash my eyes so I can seeCome on take me down, down, down, down

I'm in a cold sweat

Yeah, don't let me drown, drown, drown, drown In Mother Earth's soul, not yet

Lord, I think I found, found, found, found

My mother, Lord

Oh yeahLord, Lord, Lord, Lord, Lord, Lord Yeah down, down, down, down, down Take me down, down, down, down, down Take me
