Look for Me

Jimmy Swaggart

Look for me, for I will be there too

When you finally make your entrance to that city
Of jasper walls, bright golden avenue;
As you behold all its beauty and its splendor,
Remember there's just one request I make of you.

Look for me, for I will be there too.
I realize when you arrive, there'll be so much to view;
After you've been there ten thousand years,
or a million, or maybe two,
Look for me, for I will be there too.

As you go down that list first, there's no question,
You'll want to see your loved ones waiting there for you;
When you feel that you've shared your story with the last one
That wants to hear you tell just how you made it through

Then Look for me, for I will be there too
Yes, I realize when you arrive there'll be so much to view
After you've been there ten thousand years,
or a million, or maybe two,
Look for me, for I will be there too.

After you've been there ten thousand years,
a million, or maybe two,
Look for me, for I will be there too.

I will be there too.
