Move Right Out

Rick Astley

HmmShe comes home in the mornin' light
Tries to hide the secret of last night
Tells a tale of workin' late
Says the things she knows I hate
Why should I convince myself
That she loves me and no one else?
Feels like time to break the chains
I won't be fooled againGonna take my time
Gonna take what's mine
I'm gonna move right out
Gonna take my time
Gonna keep my pride
Gonna move right out, yeaWhen we kiss there's no flame
But I believe I'm not to blame
When we touch its by mistake
Tenderness she just can't fake
Who does she think I am
To let her love another man?
I won't take another day
I just refuse to stayGonna take my time
Gonna take what's mine
I'm gonna move right out
Gonna take my time
Gonna keep my pride
Gonna move right outGonna take my time
Gonna take what's mine
I'm gonna move right out
Gonna take my time
Gonna keep my pride
Gonna move right out, yeaOh, I love her, I really care
The days so long when she's not there
But I believe it just ain't right
To see her with someone else tonight
Hear me nowGonna take my time
Gonna take what's mine
I'm gonna move right out
Gonna take my time
Gonna keep my pride
Gonna move right outGonna take my time

Gonna take what's mine
I'm gonna move right out
Gonna take my time
Gonna keep my pride
Gonna move right out, yea
