Boom Boom In The Zoom Zoom Room

Blondie

Passing the match test? That's some kind of tease
'Cause everything rests on the moment
The little flame sees
Let's go boom boom in the zoom zoom room
If you get past that brief little flash
Take down my number with your pencil mustache
Play truth or dare in the light of a strike anywhere
Don't follow the fallen already lying down there
Let's go boom boom in the zoom zoom room
Boom boom in the zoom zoom room
I'll be the cause you can champion
Your scarlet companion and won't it be fine?
Keeping my head above water
I'm no farmer's daughter, no clinging vine
When we trip the light fantastic, a feeling so rare
It will follow your features aligned by the glare
Let's go boom boom in the zoom zoom room
Let's go boom boom in the zoom zoom room
I'll be the cause you can champion
Your scarlet companion and won't it be fun?
I'll keep my head above water
I'm no farmer's daughter, no clinging vine
Passing the match test and no one says
Thank you 'cause they're gone
Just as fast as a breeze
Boom boom in the zoom zoom room
Let's go boom
Boom boom in the zoom zoom room
Let's go, let's go, boom boom in the zoom zoom room
