Self Control

Elliott Yamin

Well, let me tell you, girl
Every since the day that we met
I never have the second guess
Of a single regretNow about the way that you're making me feel
Well, alright
I see you move, see your body groove
No, I just got coldBaby, what you're doing to me
My body is burning in the third degree
Well, alrightYou make me feel like I'm gonna lose it
You make me feel like I'm gonna lose it
You make me feel like I'm gonna lose all of my self control
Well, alrightI'm tired of wasting time
Going now and chasing that
Your body so fineGot one question on my mind
I wanna know how it feels to be mine
Yes, I doI gotta tell you, baby
I've been around the world
Seeing a lot of different girls
Ain't nobody quite like youGirl, I think I always knew
Ohh, I just can't confront the truth
Ohh, yaaYou make me feel like I'm gonna lose it
You make me feel like I'm gonna lose it
You make me feel like I'm gonna lose all of my self control
Well, alright
