

Bright Eyes

Justin Hayward

Is it a kind of dream
Floating down on the river?
Following the river of death down stream
    Oh, is it a dream?
There's a fog on the horizon
    A strange glow in the sky
And nobody knows where you can go
    Or what does it mean
    Oh, oh, is it a dream?
    Bright eyes burning like fire
    Bright eyes, how can you close and fail
    How can the eyes that burned so brightly
    Suddenly turn so pale?
    Bright eyes
    Is it a kind of shadow
    Reaching over the hill?
    Wandering over the hills unseen
    Or is it a dream?
    There's a high wind in the trees
    A cold sound in the air
    And nobody knows where you can go
    And where do you start
    Oh oh, into the dark
    Bright eyes burning like fire
    Bright eyes, how can you close and fail?
    How can the eyes that burned so brightly
    Suddenly grow so pale?
    Bright eyes
