

Win Is A Win (Feat. Akon)

Young Jeezy

I hope my words they inspire ya, spoke like a true leader
The first to admit life's more than two seaters
Man oh man how my priorities fucked up
Remember nights I'm passin' out in the Rari, too fucked up
My niggas say spend it cause you can't take it witcha'
Same time poppin' Cristal, posing for pictures
Ol' smart ass nigga, half right and half wrong
Only problem is he still here and the money gone
Oh me, oh my, give me a natural high
When I think about the nights we threw them Rollie's in the sky
When I was so mother fuckin' clean on 'em, need a tie
Every hater in the club was just wishin' we would die
A hustlers life is filled with decisions he gotta make
Remember when I got the news I was ready to cry late
Swear my levy was 'bout to break, lost religion and all my faith
I swear I seen the same shit happen to Shake
Can you imagine that look I had on my face?
Saw my nigga layin' still in a box what a waste
Got me feelin' sick, feelin' like I'm 'bout to vomit
I guess a loss ain't shit if you don't learn somethin' from it
Got me pacin' 'round the room, yeah NASCAR nigga
See my nigga sitting there to drive a fast car nigga
I'm like "Why you ridin' that? Them boys is mysteries nigga"
Live real or die tryin', it'd still a victory nigga
