

You Promised Me (Acoustic)

Kelley Jakle

I look at the past, I remember a summer
In a moment a day would pass by
But some things don't last when the leaves start falling
When rain falls from the sky

But now you are here, your face makes me red madness
But it's too late
There's no going back, I've got everything to lose
I'm on the right track, you had to choose, but once
You promised me

The touch of your hand was all that I needed
You're everything to me
It was nothing I'd planned, I fall fast and freely
With you I needed to be

But now you are here, your face makes me red madness
But it's too late
There's no going back, I've got everything to lose
I'm on the right track, you had to choose, but once
You promised me

It's hard to believe you made me strong
How do I know if I'm right or wrong?

'Cause now you are here, your face makes me red madness
Is it too late?
There's no going back, oh, I've got everything to lose
I'm on the right track, you had to choose, but once
You promised me
