Instant Pleasure

The Springstreeters

I don't want somebody to love me
Just give me sex whenever I want it
'Cause all I ask for is instant pleasure
Instant pleasure, instant pleasureYou in the traffic for all eternity
How could that speed be where you want to be?
Said don't you really want instant pleasure
Instant pleasure, instant pleasureThink that all these folks get laid
Do it 'cause their pain is great
What you thinkin' anyways?If drinkin' coffee's your idea of really cool
You can't expect no crazy chick to notice you
Just sittin' there dreamin' instant pleasure
Instant pleasure, instant pleasure
Instant pleasure, instant pleasureIf you want someone, a friend to be
Guess, you'll have to win the lottery
But till then repeat after meI don't want somebody to love me
Just give me sex whenever I want it
'Cause all I ask for is instant pleasure
Instant pleasure, instant pleasure
Instant pleasure, instant pleasure
Instant pleasure, instant pleasureI don't want somebody to love me
I don't want somebody to love me
