

Talent Goes By

Tristam

You want me to be someone else
You want me to change myself
So you can live
It won't happen again, againYou want me to live my life
Thinking that I can't achieve my best
Oh, well talent goes by
Talent goes by, talent goes by (x7)You want me to be someone else
You want me to change myself
So you can live
It won't happen again, againYou want me to live my life
Thinking that I can't achieve my best
Oh, well talent goes by
Talent goes by, talent goes by (x6)
