

Jeannie's Diary

Eels

How does her world spin
Without me and her nest
Could there really be
Such happiness Oh, she's got a dark side too
Even murderous
But I love that just like her I don't have a chance at writing the book
I just wanna be a page in Jeannie's diary
One single page in Jeannie's diary Yes, I am intense
Maybe quite obsessed
Everything she does is curious Oh, she's going to let me in
I just know it's so
Then again, who do I kid I don't have a prayer for writing the book
I just wanna be a page in Jeannie's diary
One single page in Jeannie's diary She could have anything she wants
So why not me
She could have anything she dreams Oh, to be one single page
One single page in Jeannie's dairy
