

I Hope Tomorrow Is Like Today

Guster

I'm awake, you're still sleeping
The sun will rise like yesterday
Everything that we are now
Is everything we can't let go
Or it's gone forever, far away I hope tomorrow is like today
Like today Don't you go away tomorrow
I don't think I could handle that You're probably dreaming that you're flying on
And then you start to fall but then you rise
And shine forever, don't go away I hope tomorrow is like today
I hope tomorrow is like today
Like today, like today, like today
