

Your Everything

Sal Anthony

[Chorus:]

I wanna be your everything, your lover and your friend.
I wanna be with you and never leave you until the end of time.
I wanna be your everything your lover and your friend.
I promise to love you and never play you, so let me make you mine.

[Verse 1:]

I wanna be your everything, your love and your friend, the one you go to where you don't got to pretend.
The one you show your every side to, turn the candle lights to, make sweet love then you don't gotta say goodbye to.
Always by your side even when money is low, the one one you truly care about and when you kiss you do it slow.
Not like any other, girl you been messing with,
The one you tell your secrets to and actually keeps all of them, that's who I wanna be the girl you tell your mom about and wanna spend your life together cuz you can't live without knowing in your heart she would never walk away cuz darling baby, I'm here to stay.

[Chorus:]

I wanna be your everything, your lover and your friend.
I wanna be with you and never leave you until the end of time.
I wanna be your everything your lover and your friend.
I promise to love you and never play you, so let me make you mine.

[Verse 2:]

Let me be the one you wanna be with every single day, the one that you would never cheat on if temptation came your way.
The one that you would write to if you ever got locked up, deep down in your heart you know she would write you back.
Cuz I know you been around more than a few who said I loved you when you were down and out they quickly forgot about you.
If you didn't have a thing to your name that wouldn't matter, together we could build to the top and even higher.
Just let me have a little minute of your time so that I can show you things that would really blow your mind.
See I'm tired of playing games and I know you must be too. So let me know can I kickit with you?

[Chorus:]

I wanna be your everything, your lover and your friend.
I wanna be with you and never leave you until the end of time.
I wanna be your everything your lover and your friend.
I promise to love you and never play you, so let me make you mine.

[Verse 3:]

So what you say can I keep you baby? Can I call you mine?

You got my number you can call any day at any time.

I'll be right there waiting miijo posted by the phone waiting for my everything to pick me up and take me home.

Caress all of my body in the house or in the catty and make you smile when you hearin me say damelo daddy
