mothership, mothership, do you read me

Cursive

your navel is yearning for an extension - a ghost limb it cant detach from mothers loving grasp were all cut off alone and lost your starving - its burning for the nutrient it cant have (emergency: were floating endlessly) calling out to homebase, do you read me? stranded an infant transmission terminated youve been created, severed from life and limb mothership mothership do you read me? on the front step of the universe infinitely searching for a warmth maybe ill be rescued before too long once loved, now lost forever does anyone hear my siren song? calling out to homebase one last time (the signal faded out the ship is gone) still starving for the reason stranded an infant you were created then severed from life and limb infinitely searching for a warmth on the front step of the universe once loved now lost forever
