

Worlds Apart

Amortez

Lying all alone, wishing you would call
Writing all my thoughts has broken all my bones
You gave it all up, you threw it all away
There's nothing I can do What do I think of dying?
You know it's even worse
Than what's in my head
You don't believe me when I tell you I don't want to be a fraud
And pretend that every thing's fine
I won't be here when you get home
I'm not gonna sit here and die I'll follow through again this time
I'll swallow swords, spit out my pride
I'll be just fine You read me like a book
You know I'm running out of legs to stand on
I won't believe you when you tell me These old habits die so hard
There's no intervention in sight
There's no point in calling you
I'm just gonna stand here and fight I'll follow through again this time
I'll swallow swords, spit out my pride
I'll be just fine, fine You fill my head with endless lies
You're killing me, I'm killing time
I'll be just fine So, maybe one day the pain will go away
And I will see your face, I won't even care
Changing all the locks 'cause I can't change you I'll follow through again this time
I'll swallow swords, spit out my pride
I'll be just fine, fine You fill my head with endless lies
You're killing me, I'm killing time
I'll be just fine I'll follow through again this time
I'll swallow swords, spit out my pride
I'll be just fine, fine You fill my head with endless lies
You're killing me, I'm killing time
I'll be just fine
