Cage Around The Sun

Monster Magnet

I had a urge to build a cage around the sun

I couldn't find a way to say no

I took a check on all the meters in my room

I kicked the dog and said let's go

The clouds were hangin' low above the path

I had my arm around a sundown

I pinned my baby into yankin' Satan's crank

Bum deals with a thin smile, oh yeahPushin' up and pushin' down against the sky

Like there's muscles 'round my torso

The fourth dimension of smiles, strokes and knives

This little piggy's gotta go go

To live and blow all of that piss into your heart

You got veins of iron, baby

Oh, man this egg is way too hot

Lay on a rock and split open, oh yeahYou know the lies that you tell me

All the lies I tell myself

There are breeze coming home now

Like it's screwed itself in Hell

You gotta go where this is headed

Kiss the sun to be alive

I'm a king before this high ground

Where the hole burn my eyesAnd then he alwaysSo in the end I had a cage around the sun

Looks pretty horny if I do say

The dog is dead and the sacrifice is done

All in all a pretty good day

The ocean parts and the meteors come down

Laid out in amber, baby

Fate come on and slap me in the head

Punch the switch, arrivederci

Waa
