

Nightfall

Anchor & Braille

Is it only, is it only
Up from here?
In moments like this
I wish I could just disappear Kiss me like you still believe
Hoping that nightfall will bring you back
Kiss me like you still believe
Hoping that nightfall will bring you back And if only
You could step out of these dreams
Cause my heart is heavy
It's breaking piece by piece
Isn't it funny how it's lonely people
Who want no one around?
Isn't it strange how lost we are
When we find that no one's found? Kiss me like you still believe
Hoping that nightfall will bring you back
Kiss me like you still believe
Hoping that nightfall will bring you back I know it's hard
But you gotta hold on to something
To something
May not be easy
But at least you
But at least you have me
Kiss me like you still believe
I know it's hard but you gotta hold on to someone
You'll see
(Hoping that nightfall)
I know it's hard to get caught in the moment
(will bring you back)
And bury your head
(Kiss me like you still believe)
I know it's hard but you gotta hold on to something
To believe in
(Hoping that nightfall)
I know it may not get easier
(will bring you back)
But at least you have me
