

Say You Love Me

Monophonics

Oh my days are consumed by thoughts of you
Can't get you off my brain, no matter what I do
Oooh this feeling that's coming over me
That's the feeling of love like we were meant to be All I want
Is to be with you (be with you) You could be my lady
And I could be your man Say what you want
Just say you love me
Do what you gotta do baby
You just gotta to love me
Say what you want
Just say you love me
Do what you gotta do
Just say you love me Love On I can't keep hiding from my heart
Or force my feelings to turn in on me
Yes I know love is a real special thing
Just please let me be the one you need All I want
Is to be with you
Listen Baby You could be my lady
And I could be your man (I want to be your man) Say what you want
Just say you love me
Do what you gotta do
You just gotta to love me
Say what you want
Just say you love me
Do what you gotta do
You just gotta to love me
