The Saddest Song

The Ataris

Darling are you feeling
The same thing that I'm seeing?
The troubles of the day
Took my breath away
Took my breath away
Now you're no longer talking
And I'm no longer hearing
There's nothing left to say
Said it anyway
Said it anyway
And I want you not
I need you not
I'm dying
'Cos this is the saddest song I've got Saddest song I've got

Darling are you healing
From all the scars appearing?
Don't it hurt a lot
Don't know how to stops
Don't know how it stops
Now there's no sense in seeing
The colors of the morning
Can't hold the clouds at bay
Chase them all away
Chase them all away
And I'm frozen still
Unspoken still Heartbroken
Remembering something I forgot
Something I forgot
